

Taichung Branch holds the first "Dadun Justice Market", combining auctions, charity sales, and tax promotions. - Cheers to the New Year and gets goodies together.

From 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. on February 6 of the Lunar New Year, The Taichung Branch of the Administrative Enforcement Agency held the "Dadun Justice Market" to expand the 123 joint auction and charity sale event. In addition to the original auction of vehicles, mobile phones and other items, at the branch office the atrium square has added a booth for obligor to sell products, including various leather goods, luggage, various fruits, black garlic vinegar, fruit vinegar, high-end skin care products, dried vegetables and fruits, tofu curd, tea eggs, fried rice noodles, chicken soup with mushrooms, tea drinks, rice cakes, handmade mochi, handmade toast, etc . There are 12 stalls in total, with a dazzling array of good quality and low prices. The public is welcome to come and participate in the purchase, and this will help the obligor get out of the predicament as soon as possible and have a good New Year.

This event was organized in conjunction with the Taichung City Private Shifang Social Welfare Charity Foundation, which also sets up a stall. The foundation has long been providing care and cultivation services to young people with intellectual disabilities to enable them to make a living with skills and reduce family burdens and social problems. Also invite the Central District Taxation Bureau of the Ministry of Finance, the Local Taxation Bureau of the Taichung City Government, and the Highway Bureau of the Ministry of Transportation to set up booths for tax and business promotion. In addition, the Taichung Branch Office has been voluntarily established by colleagues since the establishment of the charity club in 2001 in order to care for and help disadvantaged volunteers and organizations. The "treasure heart, share love" charity event that was originally held every year before the Lunar New Year was organized along with "Dadun Justice Market" this year. In the market, Chuang Kun-Shan, a well-known calligraphy and painting artist and director of the secretary office, sold spring couplets for charity on the spot, as well as items donated by colleagues, and donated the proceeds from the charity sale to the Shifang Social Welfare Charity Foundation.
