Global Bidding Invitation!

33 Seized Luxury Vehicles from Prince Group to be Auctioned on March 2nd , 2026

To implement Taiwan's "New Generation Anti-Fraud Strategy Guidelines" and demonstrate the government's determination to deprive criminals of their illicit gains and compensate victims for their losses, the Taipei Branch of the Administrative Enforcement Agency, Ministry of Justice, as entrusted by the Taiwan Taipei District Prosecutors Office, will hold a grand "Joint Anti-Fraud Declaration Ceremony and Luxury Vehicle Auction" at 10:30 AM on Monday, March 2, 115 (2026), at the Taiwan Police College. The auction objects consist of vehicles seized by prosecutors during the investigation of the "Prince Group" case, involving defendants such as Mr. Chen and others suspected of illegal fundraising and fraud. A total of 33 vehicles will be auctioned, including the "Four Mythical Beasts" level hypercars that have garnered worldwide attention from collectors. This auction will be open to global bidders, anyone interested is welcomed to participate in.

The lineup of the 33 luxury vehicles in this auction is the most prestigious in the history of Taiwan enforcement agencies. The most prominent focus is undoubtedly the premier hypercars including the top-tier French handcrafted supercar BUGATTI Chiron Sport, the "King of Ferraris" FERRARI LaFerrari, the legendary McLaren P1, and the PORSCHE 918 Spyder. Additionally, there are several dream models such as the ROLLS-ROYCE Phantom and the LAMBORGHINI Urus. To allow domestic and international bidders to view the splendor of these prestigious cars, the Taipei Branch has produced bilingual (Chinese and English) short introduction videos. The public may view them on the Branch's official website (<https://www.tpy.moj.gov.tw>) or its Facebook fan page.

The Taipei Branch states that fraud crimes severely infringe upon the property security of the public, and the government maintains a "zero-tolerance" attitude toward such crimes. Through close cooperation between prosecutorial and administrative enforcement agencies, the immediate realization of seized assets (interlocutory sale) during the investigation phase not only prevents the depreciation of the seized property's value but also allows the proceeds from the auction to be returned to the victims, thereby substantively implementing judicial justice.

The auction event will open for public registration and vehicle inspection starting at 9:00 AM on March 2. The vehicle inspection period will last until 10:00 AM, and the bidding registration period will last until 10:20 AM. The Joint Anti-Fraud Declaration Ceremony will take place at 10:00 AM, and the auction proceedings are expected to officially commence at 10:30 AM. Bidders are specifically reminded that they must bring their identification documents and prepare a security deposit of NT$500,000 to be eligible for entry to inspect the vehicles and participate in the bidding. Furthermore, to maintain smooth operations, the security deposit must only be paid via a cashier's check issued by a financial institution approved by the financial regulatory authorities (Payee: Taipei Branch, Administrative Enforcement Agency, Ministry of Justice); cash or credit cards will not be accepted. The successful bidder must pay the remaining balance via wire transfer before 2:00 PM on the same day. For detailed auction announcements, the vehicle inventory, and inspection methods, please visit the "Auction Announcement" section on the Taipei Branch's official website.
